

Lord Jesus Christ,

You who adds meaning to my life for the times when I am deprived and divided.

You who gives me the power to overcome the root causes of my failures.

You who bestows me with logic and reason to understand that at the base of it all, it is through your natural longingness to help me that I excel in everything that I do.

In order for you to multiply the blessings in my life, maximizing my gains and minimizing my losses, I must first begin decreasing my sinfulness down to zero and start increasing my faith and trust in you.

You who is the source of all integrity, value and solution to our problems whenever we face the unknown, help us to make and be the difference in our world today.

For all the complexity and irrationality, we pray to you, our Origin, who transcends all of our limits who transforms and changes us who gives us signs every second, every minute, every hour every day, every week, every month, and every year to do what is right and to promote equality to be always greater and not lesser in all angles and aspects of our lives.

May you teach us your ways to pull us out of the negativity that surrounds us and dwells in us to make us whole again, in all perfection as God's beloved children for all eternity and infinity.

Amen.
